

Central Cluster ST1 Histopathology Teaching 2021-Virtual

(Log in details to follow: please advise Harsha of nhs.net address if non W.Mids trainee)

Incorporate autumn "Bham block teaching" topics of Autopsy and Cytology (Including West and East Midlands and Cambridge trainees also to be invited)

August-December: Wednesdays, alt day may be selected as required, suggest 2-4/5pm for each session (to keep mornings clear for autopsy other activities etc).

1. Thursday August 12th – Dr A Pugh- Introduction to Autopsy for W.Midlands trainees
2. Thursday August 19 – A. Brown- Introduction to Cervical Cytology- normal constituents and NHSCP reporting protocols
2. August 25th – Dr K.Kuruppu – Introduction to Macroscopic Assessment
3. Sept 1st- Dr S Chacko – Introduction to Non Gynae Cytology
4. Sept 22- TBC Dr R Vaziri-Post mortem external features, toxicology, taking samples, giving evidence
5. Sept 29 – Dr A Pugh – Death Certification
6. Oct 6-Dr W Boyle- Normal and Abnormal Gynae Cytology
7. Oct 13-Dr A Williams – Screening cases and MDT case studies
8. Oct 20 – Dr A Pugh Autopsy Macros/ Autopsy Histology (? Dr E Cobby)
9. Oct 27- TBC Dr Y Miki – Serous effusion Cytology and Lymph node Cytology
10. Nov 3 – Dr J Chapman – Respiratory Cytology
11. Tues Nov 9 –Dr K Robson – Pathophysiology of Renal disease/Macros
12. Nov 17 – Dr R Brown – Pathophysiology of Liver disease
13. Nov 24 –Dr S Nagaraju - Basic approach to post-mortem neuropathology including brain cut up
14. Dec 1 – Dr P Matthews - Salivary gland and thyroid cytology
15. Dec 8- Dr K Benes – Urine Cytology
16. Dec 15 –Digital Autopsies and Case histories Dr A Pugh/ Dr A Shenton
17. Jan 5- Dr M Evans - Molecular Pathology
18. Jan 12 (2022)-Dr C Howitt- Interesting Post Mortem Case Histories (date may be changed dependent on Cambridge Teaching week/weekly program)